Sin of the Messianic

Many so-called “religions” are actually cults. Those that teach messianism are cults. Why is that?

You shall not be a respecter of persons.

That is it; but not enough, let me put down the actual quotes:

> Deuteronomy 1: 17 Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.
> Deuteronomy 16: 17 Ye shall not respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.
> 2 Chronicles 19: 7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.
> Proverbs 24: 23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.
> Proverbs 28: 21 To have respect of persons is not good: for, for a piece of bread that man will transgress.
> Romans 2: 11 For there is no respect of persons with God.
> Ephesians 6: 9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.
> Colossians 3: 25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.
> James 2: 9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

Is there any rational in all of this? For one thing, admiration for a person, is not the same as being led astray in judgment. Judgment, our judgment is the critical idea here.

We are being made to maintain and promote life in our environment, which means it is our job to learn judgment. Here we are, being made to be the savior of life, itself, demanding that someone else do that job, and to do it for our sake, how sick is that? The messianic demands gifts such as forgiveness and salvation, and whatever their little hearts so desire. The messianic will not work for what they demand. One of the most common form of messianism, is the belief if what men call “their God.” They dump all responsibility for their actions and salvation on “their God.” People anthropomorphize their imaginary god on the fly, in order to justify their sick sociopathic behavior.

We were asked to learn judgment in order to do our own work, to tend the Garden of Life. We are given the most powerful tool any life form can have for the salvation of life, yet we more often than not, shun it. How much effort have you ever put forward in your life to actually learn judgment, after all, is it not written, that we will live under the hand of God until we learn how to do the job we are being made to do? And, what the hell is this idea, that mankind believes they can make up any stories they like about God, speak for God, act for God, other than the idea of masking the face of a completely degenerate person? Is not judgment the product of the perfection of grammar? Or are you the typical idiot who say that judgment is achieved by gluing words together as if you were five years old making a paper poster?

Look to yourself. What is God making in man? It is clearly written. Man will tend the Garden of Life, and to do that job, mankind has to first learn judgment, mankind must first learn to master words.

So, What is the only thing a mind can actually do? All it can do is process information using binary recursion. Let your yea's be yea's and your nay's be nay's, i.e. two simple concepts called noun and verb, assertion and denial, particular and universal, relative and correlative, point and line, etc.

Every thing is defined as this binary construct, relatives and correlatives; two simple parts of speech which mankind has not yet even mastered. Don't believe it? Look at the computer, everything it does, the immense power it demonstrates, is done with two, and only two parts of speech.

Two parts of speech gives us four fundamental grammar systems, a Grammar Matrix; Common Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra and Geometry. As intimated in the Bible, and said plainly by Plato, the only member of our grammar matrix which can provide us with visual paradigms of all reasoning is Geometry, that by which we mark with the hand can teach us all our grammar systems, and can proof everything as well. Our Grammar Matrix, itself is put into metaphors of the Bible. Yet, today, mankind is like a five year old in regard to geometry, thinking that he can pull anything out of his ass and call it a geometry, as if binary recursion is actually different from itself.

Is it not written, everything was created by the Word? So why do you spend so much time with a little book which, being illiterate, you believe you can use to justify being illiterate? Show God your grammar book, show God you have ever had any real respect for the work He is making mankind to do. Show God that this world is not now on the brink of complete environmental collapse. Get your self flattering preaching ass out of my face and show God the work you have done by actually knowing how to use words to do that work.

Our religion starts with literacy in order to do the work God is making us for. Our religion is study until we grow a respectable amount of sense. It is wholly impossible to praise another for your own actions, it is wholly impossible to blame another for your own actions, lying is not praise, lying is not blame; you produce all of your own behaviors. Every system of Grammar has a function towards its applicability in learning and effecting predictive behavior. We are made to predict the results, and correctly predict the results of our own behavior. We are very far from having that ability; so quit wasting your life and the lives of those around you with your insane bull-shit and learn about words and how to use them to guide your own behavior first. No man is made to serve another man, it does not matter how much you flatter that person by calling them your savior. We are given the ability to learn and effect judgment; judgment is just another synonym for prophecy. That ability to predict the results of any behavior is the job we were given to do. If you are not engaged in learning your Grammar Matrix, you have no real respect for your maker at all. An animal respects an alpha animal. A man respects the work he is given to learn and do.

A messianic claims to teach the Word of God, while being provably illiterate.

Relation to self is inadmissible, therefore, there is one, and only one religion, learning how to do and doing the work God is making us for. Mankind is being made to be a savior by comprehending and using the Word, from which our grammar systems are derived, the Word created all, how much more does one need than a Grammar Matrix, each member reflecting the Word? Asking for another savior, when we already have a perfect one is simply insane. Who, but a complete idiot, claims the ultimate power of the Word, yet takes no care about their own illiteracy? There is no sense in that behavior at all.

A person claiming to be looking for the savior, is like a senile old man who spends the whole day looking for his glasses that he is also wearing on his own face.

Do you actually believe that God is making mankind to tend the Garden of Life yet was so stupid as to not also give him the most powerful tool possible to do that job? Man's so called religions all belittle God, they do not show any thanks for giving us a job, not one of them has ever learnt the Word, and used the Word, as a pattern by which we have within us, a Grammar Matrix, to do the job we are being made for; every one of them have the arrogance to ask you to support them, not God. God made you to work, show God that you are doing it.

Only the arrogant and insane, asks that God work for them. Send you a messiah indeed! When has our salvation ever left?
